In the MX SUPER, MXA, MXB classes racers are divided depending on qualification times, sports forms and rank of mastery. These classes compete in separate races. If necessary, the group MXC will be created. 10 min + 2 circles. The group MXC don't get premium. The best three racers will be rewarded in the end of the competition. The main referee and the organizer have the right to mean some racer, who is not qualified for MX SUPER class and/or outside qualification. The condition – if there a mastery level of this sportsmen is known and expected. Sportsmen division in some classes depends on the main referees decision and it's incontestable. If there are some uncertainties, the main decision belongs to the main referee and the organizer.

The potential number of racers in each class are from 10 to 22. There are possibility of qualification races. DEPENDING ON NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS, COMPETITION PROCEDURE MAY BE CHANGED!

8. Defination of results and presentation:

- Sportsmen in SUPER ENDURO are divided in two classes: PRO and HOBBY. Both classes start together. If the count of participants is less than 15, there are three final races. If the count of participants is more than 15, than two semi finals and one final race with 15 riders.
- The winners of „Dimantu kauss” determine after sum of points of two trips. MXSUPERFINAL after one race (6 circles).
- If the sum is similar the main is the place on the second trip.
- In every trip sportsmen give points:

Place	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Point	25	22	20	18	16	15	14	13	12	11
Place	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20
Point	10	9	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1

- The premium fund:
